FRIDA

Mastic-Noir 53

Frida is an embroidery of Hispanic inspiration treated with a black thread that gives it all its relief and intensity. The design refers to Frida Kahlo's braids in the movie which carries its name.

Frida is presented in eight colors, the design is composed of three bands of embroidery and a half-band at the raccord at each edge of the width. The plain backgrounds of the Frida and Colette drawings are available under the reference "Voile de Felouque" to allow beautiful combinations of embroidery and plain backgrounds.
